Triple Threat:
Teenagers, Trauma, and Talking

Discover and discuss the differences between teenager “trauma behaviors” and teenager “normal behaviors.”

You will learn about pros and cons of different behavioral intervention methods.

In addition, you will identify ways to talk to and connect with teens in order to build deeper relationships with them and be able to be more effective in their life.

Stacey Goodson completed her Bachelor’s Degree at Grand Valley State University in Criminal Justice with an emphasis on Juvenile Justice and earned her Master’s Degree from Capella University in Human Services, with an emphasis in Family and Community Studies.

She worked in child welfare for more than 12 years and has had the privilege of parenting over 18 children in her home, placed through the foster care system. Stacey is passionate about providing training opportunities and empowering others to be the best versions of themselves.
